

You're under arrest!

Newspapers insist on printing the names of those who get arrested just to sell papers and embarrass people.

That's the easy, bumper sticker answer. The truth is, people who get arrested and put in jail are presumed to be innocent. The government does not have the authority to keep innocent people in jail.

If the names of people who are arrested were kept secret, who would know?
If you are ever thrown in jail, you better hope somebody who loves you knows where you are.
