

JACKIE SUE RILEY NAMED HOSTESS OF ALUMNI BANQUET.

50-Year Class Will Be
Guests of Honor.

Traditional events that mean a lot to people often don't make the radio or TV news — and they're not even on the blogosphere radar. Not enough arguing. But Jackie Sue Riley and the other graduates of the local high school think the reunion is the most important thing that happens that week. Their local newspaper thinks so too.

Newspapers report the good news. Read your paper, and get in touch with your community.

This message brought to you by this newspaper and the Missouri Press Association.